Android Go keeps Nokia 2.1 secure and up to date on a lighter weight version of Android. While there's access to the full Google Play store, Android Go also offers optimised app versions to make the most of the data efficiency and cost benefits.

With a simplified layout, Android Go will appeal to those looking for a simpler Smartphone. All the app benefits with an easier to use menu.

2 day battery life gives you the freedom to use the device as you please and not worry about running out of juice.

Targeting millennials (16-24yo) who place high priority in getting value for money, while also making every day life more enjoyable with a fun device
